

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Pikeville College has deep roots and a proud heritage. It was founded in 1889 by Presbyterians with a mission of providing the best possible educational opportunities to the people in the mountain area of central Appalachia. Though the College has changed and grown in many ways throughout the years, this primary purpose has remained steadfast.

It is important to know that Pikeville College is not simply buildings and programs, bricks and mortar. It is a community of professional people devoted to the total development of the skills and knowledge of each student at the College to his or her fullest potential. Commitment to students is foremost.

One of the important advantages of being a small college is that we can work with each student as an individual. Each student is different in important ways, and it is essential that we recognize those differences so that each may develop his or her full potential, both academically and personally.

At Pikeville College, education is experienced in an environment that remains true to its Christian heritage, stressing the worth of each individual and the acceptance of a variety of religious expressions. We continue to work toward spiritual growth in all areas of campus life.

We are pleased that you are considering Pikeville College for your education. We hope that you will find us to be of interest as you look to the future. Let me assure you that we are interested in you.

Harold H. Smith
President of the College
